Re: United States v. Vashon Combs
20 Cr. 670 (VEC) -1

Dear Judge Caproni:

I write this letter to request a minor modification in Mr. Combs' bail conditions.

On November 20, 2020, Mr. Combs' was released on a $75,000 personal recognizance bond secured by two financially responsible people, home detention with electronic monitoring, and his travel restricted to the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York. On or about November 25, 2020, his restricted area of travel was enlarged to include the District of New Jersey for employment purposes.

Mr. Combs seeks to have permission that while he is allowed out for his employment, he be permitted to go grocery shopping a part of one day a week. I have spoken to his pre-trial officer, Winter Pascual, and A.U.S.A. Jacob Gutwillig who each advised me that they consent to that request. All other terms and conditions of his release shall remain in full force and effect.

It is respectfully requested that your Honor grant this request by the defendant.

Thank you for your for your consideration an attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
